To Whom It May Concern:

Welcome to our upcoming River Through Time living history reenactment.

This is our 15th year of operation and we look forward to children of all ages learning about life throughout time. From the Voyageurs/Fur Trade Era, (1600s) French & Indian War, Revolutionary War, War of 1812, Mexican Texas War, Civil War, Indian Wars, Spanish American War, WW 1, WW 2, Korean War, Vietnam eras. (1975). There will be many demonstrators, reenactors, Native wigwams and tipis, Native American Drumming, early settler encampments, military encampments, battles and skirmishes. Our demonstrators and reenactors are always eager to engage and answer any questions the children or adults may have.

There will be old fashioned games for the children and adults to participate in – Tug of War, potato sack race and horse shoes to name a few. Make a candle, make some rope. Watch the blacksmith make some nails, help the doctor tend to wounded soldiers and so much more! There will be numerous merchants and traders for purchasing souvenirs, snacks and drinks as well.

Education Day is available to all students of all ages, from all types of schools – public, private, and home. Admission is free of charge. Friday is packed full of activities for a fun filled educational day for children and adults alike.
